Preface

THIS pamphlet is issued for two reasons. First, as a medium for setting forth sundry notes regarding the Nortons, gathered in various ways. Second, in hopes that more interest in genealogy will be created in the different branches of the family and that all will work for a Norton Genealogy that shall be as complete as possible. One correspondent suggests a Family Association, with yearly meetings, etc.

I hereby express my thanks for notes and data to Miss Mary E. Brooks of Torrington, Conn., (custodian of all records compiled by her grandfather, Lewis M. Norton, who in his day (died 1860) possessed more information regarding the Nortons than any other living man), also to Miss Frances A. Norton and Mr. George C. Norton of Buffalo, N. Y.

The plus (†) mark indicates that I possess data regarding descendants and would be glad to hear from any one interested.

WALTER W. NORTON.

Lakeville, Conn., August 1909.

Norton

The History of the Norton family begins at the time of the Norman Conquest when Le Seigneur de Norville crossed over to England with King William the Conqueror, September 29, 1066, and was his Constable.

The name at that time being Norville which in French signified North Village; the name being changed long afterwards to Nor-ton, which in English is, North-town. It is supposed that all the families of this name in England, Ireland and America were derived from one man.

John Norton

JOHN NORTON born about 1622 probably at London, 3rd son of Richard Norton and Ellen Rowley, daughter of Thomas, emigrated to America, and as far as we know came first to Branford, Conn.. His name first appears on the records there on the first page of the first book July 7, 1646, in a list among whom lands were to be divided. These were records of the early acts if not the first acts of the proprietors, or planters as they were commonly called. His name appears repeatedly to 1648 in similar lists. The first inhabitants of Branford were from Wethersfield, Conn., and from Southampton, L. I., and the settlement is said to have been begun in 1644, but the laying out of the lands was not begun before 1646. John Norton removed from Branford to Hartford about 1659.

The description of his Hartford property seems to be worth an insertion in this place. It is on "The original distribution of the lands of Hartford, page 452 and 455." Sept. 29, 1659 he made a purchase in Hartford of Jasper Gunn - - - of several pieces of land, "and housing". He probably left Branford at about that time - - - but was before a proprietor in the new township of Farmington.

"Land in Hartford upon the river of Connecticut, belonging to John Norton and his heirs forever, - - - one parcel of which he bought of Jasper Gunn, containing by estimation one acre and two roods, be it more or less, together with a house and barn standing thereon; which parcel of land abutts on the highway leading from the old ox-pasture to the mill, on the west side of land appointed for a burying place and on Charles Fox's land on the East and on John Stedman's land on the South - - - and on O. (O zias) Goodwin's land on the North.

Next are described seven pieces more, a part of which was on the "East side of the great river," - - containing in all about 35 acres. The next and last piece is thus described, - - "More one parcel of wood land which he bought of Jasper Gunn, lying in the ox-pasture, containing by estimation thirty acres, be it more or less, abutting on John Pantry's land on the South and on a highway lying in that ox-pasture on the East on Mill river on the West."

"Those parcels of land were purchased of Jasper Gunn, and passed over to John Norton by a deed of sale Sept. 29, 1629 - - but it should have been 59, - - which deed was witnessed by Messrs. John Steel, and John Sumor. Recorded this 15th day of Feb. 1666, per me - - John Allyn Register."

"These parcels of land above written are all sold to Ensign Jarred Spencer, and stand recorded to him in the 445th page of this book. John Allyn Register."

On the page above referred to is a deed from John Norton - - "Land in Hartford upon the river of Connecticut, belonging to Ensign Jarred Spencer and his heirs forever, which he purchased of John Norton. Then follows a description of all the above said pieces. "February 1666, John Norton ordered me to record these parcels above written to Ensign Jarred Spencer he having sold them to him. John Allyn, Register."

There is next following a receipt signed by John Norton. "These presents witness that whereas Jarred Spencer of Hartford was indebted unto me John Norton of Farmington the sum of one hundred twenty-two pounds and ten shillings, for certain parcels of land and housing situated at Hartford", etc., This was dated Feb. 23, 1664.

With respect to the question - - When did John Norton remove to Farmington? - - the best evidence to be found in the record of the baptism of his son Samuel "May 30, 1659.

On the Proprietor's Book in Farmington his name appears among the 84 proprietors in the First Division of lands - - and onward. The town was incorporated 1645. There can be little doubt that he was a proprietor there several years before his settlement in Farmington even possibly before he removed to Branford. Made free at Hartford May 21, 1664. He was then of Farmington. Joined the church in Farmington in October 1661.

He married first Dorothy who died in Branford, Jan. 24, 1652. Married second Elizabeth who died in Branford, Nov. 6, 1657, and third Elizabeth Clark, who died in Farmington Nov., 8, 1702, said to be sister of John Clark of Saybrook. He died in Farmington Nov. 5, 1709.

great grandson of Rev. Joseph Elliott and the g g grandson of Rev. John Elliott, the apostle to the Indians. Dr. Elliott made a deep impression upon the people of Madison. "He had the dignity, gravity, sedateness and general bearing of the gentleman of the olden time. He was precise in speech and methodical in all his movements." Dr. Todd says: "He was a tall, very thin and slim man. His legs always draped in black stockings and small clothes seemed too slender to hold him up. His manners and bearing were most gentlemanly. He was a fine scholar, a genuine lover of study, a capital preacher, a wise and shrewd man, etc. He was graduated at Yale College in 1786, was a Congregational clergyman, received degree of D. D. from Yale, of which College he was a trustee about twelve years. Settled as a minister at Madison, Conn., Nov. 2, 1791, admitted 335 persons to the church, and continued such ministry until his death, Dec. 17, 1834.

Mrs. Elliott then married Dec. 8, 1830, his third cousin, General Elisha Sterling of Salisbury, eldest son of Capt. William and Jeremiah (Sill) Sterling, and died July 9, 1841.

GEN. ELISHA STERLING, oldest son of Capt. William Sterling of Lyme, was married to Alma Canfield, daughter of the Hon. John Canfield of Sharon, Conn., Jan. 1791. "Gen. Sterling, born in Lyme, Nov. 5, 1763, was graduated at Yale College in 1787. That he sustained a good standing, is evinced by his having an honorable share in the Commencement exercises. Immediately after his graduation, he assumed charge of an Academy, then recently established in Sharon, and during the two years it was under his tuition and management, it became very thoroughly established and popularly known. While at the head of the Academy, he pursued the study of Law with the Hon. John Canfield, and was admitted to the Bar in 1789 and immediately opened an office in Salisbury. He was very fortunate in his place of settlement, and soon found himself engaged in lucrative practice, which he pursued with much industry. He was, at an early period, appointed Attorney for the State, and annually re-appointed for many years, until a political change in the County Court led to a change. The propriety of his management as a public prosecutor was never questioned, even by his political opponents. In addition to the office of State's Attorney, he for nine years held the office of Judge of Probate for the District of Sharon, an office then depending upon the annual appointment of the Legislature and until for a like cause above mentioned, he was required to give place to another of different political opinions and the latter office he held two or three years after he ceased to be of the then healthy political faith."—(From "Lights of the Litchfield Bar.") Twice he represented the 17th Senatorial District in the Senate and for several years represented the Town in the General Assembly. In 1793 he was made Captain and in 1800 Brigade Major and Inspector. In 1809 he was made Colonel and in 1814 while in command of his Regiment at Groton, he received his commission as Brigadier General. In 1815 he was made Major General of Connecticut Militia.

ALMA CANFIELD, wife of Gen. Sterling, born Dec. 30, 1774, died March 11, 1830, and he married for his second wife, Mrs. Sarah Norton Elliott, the widow of the Rev. Dr. John Elliott, of Madison, Conn. Gen. Sterling died Dec. 3, 1836.

5 iii LOT, b. April 17, 1769.

MEMORANDA

ESTHER MERRILL was daughter of Noah Merrill, (born May 8, 1707, died 1739) and Esther his wife. Noah was the first Town Clerk of New Hartford, Conn., and first son of Isaac, born March 11, 1681, and Sarah Cooke. Isaac, son of John, born 1635, and Sarah Watson, his wife, daughter of John Watson. John, son of Nathaniel and Susanna Wilterton, his wife. Nathaniel Merrill and brother John, emigrated in 1633 from Salisbury, County Wiltshire, England, and settled for a time in Ipswich, Mass., later were in Newbury, Mass., where they were prominent in all social, educational, and religious affairs. Mary Hervey Davies was widow of

Rev. Thomas Davies who was born at Herefordshire, England, Dec. 21, 1736, removed to America in 1745, Yale College, 1758, ordained in London, 1761, died May 12, 1766. Thomas Norton of Guilford

1582-1648

THOMAS NORTON came to Guilford with Rev. Mr. Whitfield in 1639, was a signer of the Plantation Covenant, and served the town as its miller until his death in 1648. He is stated to have been a church warden of Mr. Whitfield's parish at Ockley in Surrey, a few miles south of London, England, and has been thought to have been connected with the Nortons of Sharpenhow, Bedfordshire, (New Eng. Register, Vol. XIII., p., 225) Dea. Lewis M. Norton of Goshen, Conn. identified him with with Thomas, son of Wm. Norton and his second wife Denice Cholmsly, and put the date of his birth as about 1582. His home lot in Guilford contained two acres and was on the west side of Crooked Lane (now State Street.) This lot fell to his son John, on Thomas Norton's death, and afterwards was occupied by Lieut. William Seward, his son-in-law. Thomas Norton also owned seventeen and one-half of "upland in the plains" and a parcel of one and one-half acres of marsh land by the sea-side. His wife was named Grace and her maiden name is supposed to have been Wells.

The Guilford Covenant

The covenant made by Mr. Whitfield's company and signed on shipboard was as follows: "We whose names are hereunder written intending by God's gracious permission to plant ourselves in New England, and, if it may be, in the southerly part about Quinnipiac: we do faithfully promise each to each, for ourselves and families, and those that belong to us, that we will, the Lord assisting us, sit down and join ourselves together in one entire plantation; and to be helpful each to the other in every common work, according to every man's ability and as need shall require; and we promise not to desert or leave each other or the plantation, but with the consent of the rest or the greater part of the company who have entered into this engagement. As for our gathering together in a church way, and the choice of officers and members to be joined together in that way, we do refer ourselves until such time as it shall please God to settle us in our plantation.

In witness whereof we subscribe our hands the first day of June 1639.

*Nicholas Norton of Martha's Vineyard.

1610---1690

- 1 NICHOLAS NORTON, born, 1610; died 1690; wife Elizabeth settled, first, in Weymouth, Mass., later on Martha's Vineyard, Mass., (Munsell's American Ancestry, Vol. X, p. 88.) That he was in Weymouth in 1639 is apparent from the following: "Nicholas (Norton), Weymouth, bought Feb. 20, 1639, of Richard Standerwick of Broadway, Somerset county, clothier, all the cattle in the hands of Mr. Hull in New England (Plymouth Colony record) (Pope's Pioneers of Mass., p. 332) The records of the Massachusetts Bay Colony, Vol. IV, part 1, show that Nicholas was living as late as May 15, 1657, in Weymouth. Nicholas allotted in Weymouth: "six acres in mill field" and "Five acres adoyning to John Whitman's greate lot;" (History of Weymouth, Mass., p. 263.) A great lot was assigned to Nicholas, Feb. 3, 1651. This lot was situated on the east side of the Great Pond (History of Weymouth pp. 281-82.) July 23, 1645: the town ordered: All hogs also all Pigs over 8 weeks yoked except Nicholas Norton's," etc. Nicholas residence is here referred to as being opposite the great swamp. In 1646 he was a constable and collector of rates (taxes). He was made a rater (or assessor) Nov. 26, 1651 and in 1656 was reimbursed for the loss of an ox (Records of the Mass., Bay Colony, Vol. IV, part 1, p. 303.) There was found this year due Nicholas for keeping cattle £13,5s. He had about this time lumber from the town mill, 3,500 feet, 2,000 feet, 4,000 feet are specified. He was wood ward July 14, 1658 and received in 1660, £1 from the town for killing a wolf (From records of Weymouth, Mass.) The Indian chief Wanepetuck and three other chiefs executed a deed without date conveying land in Weymouth to Nicholas Norton and sixty other persons which was confirmed by the Court in the year 1685. Land was allotted to Nicholas in Tisbury township, Martha's Vineyard, Mass. "February the 9: 1681-82; "whereas we James Allen and Thomas Mayhew was appointed by the freeholders of Tisbury to Layout unto Those men swamp or Low land which had none or but little to their house lots making them equal with others as near as we could and in order there unto we have Layed out all the swamp land we found as followeth and first at a place called Wasquims we Layed out the first lot to Henery Luce the second to Daniell Stuard (Stewart) the third to Nicholas Norton the fourth to Curnelas Brigs the fifth to Joseph Daggitt the sixth to James Allen being the last upon that book (Tisbury Town Records, page 15). When this grant was made Nicholas had probably lived on Martha's Vineyard about twenty years. Both Nicholas and wife Elizabeth died in 1690. The will of Nicholas Norton, made in 1690, names seven daughters. It speaks of son in law Thomas Wolling, "dafters," 'Pese,' Butler, Stanbridge, Huxford and Williams.

*It is reported a London genealogist has lately discovered the ancestry of Nicholas Norton heretofore unknown.

George Norton of Salem, Mass.

GEORGE NORTON, born in England, emigrated with Higginson to Salem in 1629. Took the freeman's oath May 14, 1634. There is some evidence that he was a carpenter by trade. Was connected with a company who obtained leave from General Court to settle Jeffrey's Creek in 1640, afterwards called Manchester. Removed to Gloucester about 1641. Was representative of that town 1642-3-4. Moved back to Salem 1644. Was dismissed from church at Gloucester to church at Wenham Sept. 21, 1645. Married Mary . He died 1659.

2 GEORGE NORTON (George) of Salem, Ipswich, Mass., and Suffield, Conn., b. 1641, March 28, m. first 1669, Oct. 7, Sarah Hart, who d. 1682, June 23, at Suffield. George m. second Mercy Gillett (widow) of Windsor. The town of Suffield agreed with George Norton and Richard Austin 1695 to make all the windows for the minister's house at eighteen pence per light and to pay for the same in provision and flax. The early records of the town of Ipswich are stated to be very imperfect. and mutilated, there being but few records of births, deaths and marriages prior to 1680. The Church records of the first parish have been destroyed or cannot be found to about 1775. It is evident that the first five children of this George Norton were born in Ipswich, but that he afterwards became a settler at Suffield, Conn. From the records of the doings of the Committee for the management of Stony Brook Plantation (Suffield) it appears that a grant of 60 acres of land (15 acres of it on High Street) was made to George Norton Sept. 14, 1674. The settlement of the plantation was broken up in 1675 on account of the war with the Indians commonly known as Philip's war; but was commenced again at its close in 1676-7. The name of George Norton occurs as an inhabitant there as early as Sept. 25, 1677. He is called Ensign Norton in the list of voters March 9, 1682. He was chosen one of the selectman in 1693 and was sent a representative to the general Court in Boston the same year, at which time he is called

Captain Norton. In the Probate records in Hampshire, Book 3, pages 36--37, is found the settlement of the estate of this Capt. George Norton, dated March 31, 1698. Mercy was his widow—his sons: George, Thomas, Nathaniel and Freegrace. His daughters: Sarah, Alice, Mary, Abigail, Joanna and Elizabeth in the above order: Thomas, Nathaniel and Alice were then of Ipswich. He d. 1696, Nov 15, (Notes arranged by L. M. N.)

English Ancestry

There is an early Genealogical Chart of the Nortons, of which a description appears in the "New England Historical and Genealogical Register," Volume 13, pages 225-230. That able genealogist, W. H. Whitmore, furnished it for publication, and says it is almost the only case where he has found a carefully drawn pedigree brought by a settler.

It is ornamented by arms, where they are mentioned here, the same arms being found in "Burke's General Armory," where his name appears.

1. The Signr de Noruile came into England with William the Conqueror, and was his Constable. He married into the name of Valois. (Arms of Valois; Semee de France or fleur de lys.)
2. Sr. de Noruile married in the name of Barr. (Argent semee de fleurs de lys, three billets barry?)
3. Sr. de Noruile married into the house of Dalbemonte, (Arms: Ermine on a pile azure three fleurs de lys or.)
4. Sr. de Noruile married Auelina, daughter of Neuil of Raby. (Arms Nevill of Raby: Gules a saltire argent. Burke.)
5. Sr. de Noruile married Jorieia, daughter of Sgr. Dampre de Court. (Arms: Ermine three bars cotised gules.)
6. Sr. de Noruile, alias Norton, married the daughter of Sir John Hadscoke. (Arms: Gules a bend ermine, over all a chevron argent.)
7. Sr. de Noruile, alias Norton, married the daughter and co-heiress of Monsignor Bassingbourne, (Arms: Gyronny of eight argent and azure. Burke.) and had Elizabeth who married Roger Hill, of County Stafford.
8. Sir John Norton, alias Noruile, who married the daughter of the Lord Grey de Ruthyn. (Arms: Barry of six argent and azure in chief three torteaux. Burke.) by whom he had:

- i John, of whom hereafter,
- ii A son, who married a daughter of Montchencie. (Arms of Montchenzi: Barry of twelve argent and azure. Burke.)

iii Joane, who married 1st William Walker, and had a daughter Agnes, who married John Winger, and had Nicholas, George and Elizabeth. Other descendants appear in the Register.
